THE MATOR MEANS BUSINESS.

The mayor presented the following:

GENTIEMES - William Merrit, of the firm of Carney & Merrit, while that firm beld and were enjoying alicense to retail inquor in the city, was on the firm of July last acrested for violating the Sunday liquer law, and on the following day pleaded guilty to the charge. He was again arrested on the Nth of the same mouth for a similar violation. The evidence in his trial on the last charge was published in the newspapers and to which I call your attention. The license of the firm expired July 27, and by the action of the city council a short time since renewal of license to this firm was authorized. I have not yet approved of the applicants' bonds and the renewal incance has not yet been assued. In consideration of the fact that the applicants have confessed to having violated the Sunday ordinances of the city council when the applicants have confessed to having violated the Sunday ordinances of the city while enjoying the benefits of their former license and upon supposition that the city council when the applicants license was renewed was not awars of the fact that the Sunday ordinance had been violated. I thorsfore call the attention of the council to the matter and respectively ask that the previous action in the premises be reconsidered, the authority for doing which is entered in section 2 of an act relating to fluor licenses, revised ordinances. 1892, page 57, Rospectfully, E.
